(Recording: capo 5)

Verse 1:

Am C Em F

The music I make is how I feel
A quiet place that's just for me
The foreign sound replaces the air
I let it settle, I let it be

I came of age when I was 16
Unlocked the box to get the keys
I stepped inside the black oak tree
Sound pouring from fingers like growing leaves

Chorus:

Am C G F

Harmony awakens
The drums in my heart
I need a beginning
I need to restart
The beat continues
To pump blood through my veins
All that I am
Is here to remain
(Repeat)

Verse 2:

Am C Em F

As time rolls on, I'm not at ease
Turn from the world, and into my ears
Tension in my head subsides
The way I've coped for all these years

And when at last I open the door
Everything else just fades away
Into the silence I can sing
All the things I cannot say

Chorus:

Am C G F

Harmony awakens
The drums in my heart
I need a beginning
I need to restart
The beat continues
To pump blood through my veins

All that I am,
Is here to remain
(Repeat)

Bridge:

C D Em Em D
Like a mother's voice, it saves my life entirely
And creates it at the same time
I try to forge ahead but, I'm slower than the rest
But I shall win, with light in my eyes and time on my side
(Repeat)

C D Em
Ah

Chorus:

Am C G F
Harmony awakens
The drums in my heart
I need a beginning
I need to restart
The beat continues
To pump blood through my veins
All that I am,
Is here to remain
(Repeat)
